It was a pleasure and a challenge to initiate and organize the “Spirit of Art” International Contemporary Art Exhibition.

The exhibition is organized to tighten the cultural dialog between visual art artists from 13 countries: Norway, Israel, Canada, Germany, Switzerland, Australia, France, Italy, U.S.A, Cyprus, Netherlands, Bulgaria and Great Britain.

The “Spirit of Art” presents eighty one of the finest works (sixty paintings and twenty one sculptures) of 41 well known artists.

Through their works, each artist shares with his fellow artists and the spectators their personal reflections and interpretation of the spirit and culture influences of his country and heritage, creating a unique and multi-culture artistic structure with a feast of colors, shapes, styles and techniques merging into a vibrant artistic kaleidoscope. Gathering artists and art works from different and diversified countries, origins and artistic spheres in the cultural center of London will provide art lovers, art dealers, curators, artists, and art collectors a multicultural “corridor”, interacting and communicating with the different artists, colors, art facts and images.

The artworks showcased in the exhibition are created in a variety of techniques and materials from oil, acrylic, mixed media, collages to bronze sculptures. The artworks of these artists are in private collections and museums around the world. One can only admire the richness of the collection.

This exhibition represents a typical and modern visual art approach. Visual art is universal and this show is an excellent example of how art can act as an international language, bringing together different nationalities to share a common vision of promoting and recognizing art. Art is a universal language that connects people from all over the world. Circles of art do not end in one country, they overlap and cover the world.

I hope that this event will have an echo and will be the beginning of new friendships, of new links between different cultures, different people, and different artists.

My warm thanks go to all the artists who have given the best of themselves for this exhibition.

Enjoy it!

Curator and producer

La Galleria Pall Mall is proud to host the International Contemporary Art Exhibition “Spirit of Art”, 20 - 26 March, 2011.

Curated by Mrs. Zina Bercovici, the art show hosts paintings, collages and sculptures by 41 artists from Europe, Asia as well as from North and South America. (Norway, Israel, Canada, Germany, Switzerland, Australia, France, Italy, U.S.A, Cyprus, Netherlands, Bulgaria and Great Britain).

The artists included are Sissel Aurland, Eva Avi Iona, Zina Bercovici, Therese Boisclair, Dagmar Calais, Alessia Carrara, Julia Carter, Leila Chalabi, Cosimo Corola, Randy Covey, Inger Dillan Antonsen, Nina Dreyer Henjum, Marit Eide Rosendal, Baruch Elron, Maureen Fain, Kiki Fleming, Karen Frostig, Mina Gampel, Vera Gelert, Kerry Grøneng, Susan Kerr, Hilde Klomp, Solomon Leviev, Mais, Idit Makover, Einat Maor, Yeruham Mezan, Hanna Oren-Huppert, Bruno Pascal, Nikki Perzuck, Renée Politzer, Liat Polotsky, Barbara Robinsohn, Ruthy Segal, Wilma Veen, Patrizia Viviana De Filippo, Vlado Vladev, Avril Doctor, Batya Bombigher, Sonja Eisenberg.

The show with its rich mix of forms, colours and styles emphasises how visual art from different cultures can come together and communicate a common theme even when the artists interpret the subject from a different perspective, ethnic background and age group.

In the selection of the works, Mrs. Bercovici has fused the individual expression technique and style of each artist together in a short but truly international art collaboration project.

The “Spirit of Art” exhibition offers a unique opportunity for the British public to interact with the artists and view original works from 13 different countries.

Mrs Elizabeth Mitchell D’Anna
Director

“In our life there is a single color, as on an artist’s palette, which provides the meaning of life and art. It is the color of love”.
